Conservation Agriculture

Learn the skills. Earn the credential. Build a livelihood.
BIC-21 | Agriculture and food

Scan to verify

COURSE CODE	BIC-21 (tracks BIC-21-6, BIC-21-12, BIC-21-24)
ENTRY REQUIREMENTS	Everyone starts with the four-week Common Core (BIC-0). Entry is assessed at registration.

What you will learn

BIC-21-6 | 6-month certificate

Core skills to start work or a small business.

- Minimum tillage
- Ripper-tine use
- Cover crops
- Rotations
- Mulching
- Water harvesting

BIC-21-12 | 12-month diploma

Everything in BIC-21-6, plus:

- Demonstration-plot management
- Extension and farmer-training skills
- Soil testing

BIC-21-24 | 24-month advanced award

Everything in BIC-21-12, plus:

- GreenGuard service business
- Farm planning for clients
- Community training

Fees

Fees by sponsorship or sliding scale. Ask us for the current course fee.

Next intake

Intake dates are announced here and by email to registered learners.

How to apply

Apply online at www.bica.org.zw/register?stream=academy&course=BIC-21 or contact the Academy. Bring your ID and any certificates you have.

PHONE	+263774114107
EMAIL	info@bica.org.zw
ONLINE	www.bica.org.zw/academy/conservation-agriculture

Every credential from BICA carries a QR code. Anyone can scan it to check that it is genuine. Scan the code on this brochure to see the latest course details.